What a season we have! There really is something for everyone in our line up!

If you’re keen on music, make sure you don’t miss Gilbert O’Sullivan, Steeleye Span, Clare Teal or one of our many amazing tribute acts to bands like T-Rex, Genesis or Buddy Holly.

Comedy takes centre stage with Henning Wehn, Ed Byrne and Milton Jones visiting, whilst we also continue to host the Comedy Cottage on the last Friday of each month.

We can’t forget the pantomime ‘Jack & The Beanstalk’ starring James & Ola Jordan (Strictly Come Dancing) along with Redhill favourites Simon Bashford and Neil Wheatley.

As well as the traditional Christmas treat we also have lots more to keep the family entertained, including Exciting Science, Ensonglopedia of Animals and Pop Divas Live!

If you’re looking for a more cerebral night out, then talks from Simon Weston CBE, David Starkey and Michael Portillo are not to be missed!

There really are so many great live events that, along with our regular event cinema screenings from prestigious companies like The National Theatre and The Royal Opera House, you’ll be wanting to come back again and again!

Sound of the 60s Live hosted by BBC Radio 2’s Tony Blackburn

Saturday 21st September 7.30pm

Tickets £35

An evening hosted by Radio 2’s legendary DJ, Tony Blackburn of 60s classics performed live by the Sounds Of The 60s All Star Band & Singers.

Every week, more than a million people tune in to BBC Radio 2 to hear Tony Blackburn wax lyrical about the biggest stars of the 60s – with stories and songs from this most loved decade, come along and spend the evening with Tony, as he brings Sounds Of The 60s from the studio to the stage!
An evening with Simon Weston CBE

Wednesday 25th September
7.30pm | Tickets £21

‘My Life…. My Story in My Words’

Mere words alone seem so inadequate when referring to Simon Weston. He was a soldier serving in the British Army at the time of the Falklands War in 1982, when two Argentine planes bombed RFA Sir Galahad and turned the ship into an inferno. Simon survived, but suffered burns to 46% of his body, yet, he would say he was lucky, as he lost many of his comrades that day. Since that fateful day, he has become one of the most recognised faces of the conflict and in this show he discusses his experiences with his close friend David FitzGerald from the BBC.

Simon Weston is a truly remarkable man, who despite all he has suffered has emerged as one of this country’s most inspirational people.

The show will come delivered with footage and photography from the conflict, and will include a Q & A session.

Henning Wehn: Get On With It

Thursday 26th September 8pm | Tickets £22.50

You couldn’t make it up; surely the German Comedy Ambassador Henning Wehn hasn’t bosched out yet another new show? And what’s he still doing here anyway? Well, his lack of transferable skills is what keeps him here and his belief that practise makes perfect is what keeps him going. This show is a much needed call to arms. Listen, everyone: stop pondering and hand-wringing. Instead get on your bike and put your face to the grindstone!

“Cor blimey” The Guardian

“As subtle as Schumacher on Battiston”

Some bloke on Twitter

“Wehn wraps his vowels around the issues of immigration and identity. And he triumphs at it”

The Times
G2 Definitive Genesis

Friday 4th October 8pm | Tickets £21

G2 Definitive Genesis are making their annual return to The Harlequin. G2 pay tribute to a vintage period in Genesis’ history with songs from the four-man “Seconds Out” era, and earlier Gabriel years.

Hear classics such as Ripples, Entangled, Los Endos, Blood On The Rooftops and Afterglow, along with Gabriel era classics Firth Of Fifth, Cinema Show and Suppers Ready. This is vintage Genesis, performed by G2 to a level Genesis themselves would be proud of! Well, Steve Hackett says he likes it...

So take a little trip back and relive those wonderful moments of your Genesis musical history with G2.

Soul of a Woman: A celebration of inspirational women in music

Saturday 28th September 8pm | Tickets £16, Concessions £14

Over the years Stephanie has been singing lead and providing backing vocals in various shows, including working with the late great Gary Moore. And now, this love of music and experience comes together for a very unique show.

Her ‘Soul of a Woman’ show is a very special opportunity to see and hear a remarkable artist give her own interpretations of music from the very best of the inspiring women in music. With her phenomenal band expect to hear music from Aretha, Gladys, Dusty, Chaka, Amy, Adele, and many more. This will be a show and an artist you will remember for a long, long time. All proceeds from the show will go towards treatment in America for Stephanie’s son who has cerebral palsy.
Ballet Theatre UK:
Wizard Of Oz
Saturday 12th October 2.30pm
Tickets £19, Senior £17, Child £11,
Dance Schools £11 & 1 free for every 10

Join Ballet Theatre UK as we follow the yellow brick road and discover all the wonders of Oz. Enjoy Dorothy, the Scarecrow, Tinman, and Lion, (and yes Toto too) as they seek the Wonderful Wizard to find that there’s no place like home!

The Wizard of Oz is a two act, full-length, ballet adaptation of the iconic tale by L. Frank Baum, told through the magic of classical dance. Set to a classical score which brings the story to life, this production is family friendly and is the perfect way to introduce children to the classical ballet.

‘Just Gilbert’
Gilbert O’Sullivan in Concert
Thursday 10th October 7.30pm
Tickets £29.50

Enjoying one of the most creative and commercially successful periods of an outstanding career, Gilbert O’Sullivan has continued to look to the future while his famous back catalogue has won respect and adoration all over the world. His 2018 album reached the top 20 and he now returns for a solo show that will see him present new songs alongside classics such as ‘Alone Again Naturally’, ‘Clair’ and ‘Nothing Rhymed’ in an intimate and unforgettable setting.
Up Close and On Stage

The Harlequin are delighted to welcome you to a selection of shows in a more intimate setting. With theatre, new writing, song and magic it has something for everyone and is a great opportunity to get right to the heart of the action when you get up close and on stage.

In Loyal Company

Wednesday 16th October 2.30pm & 7.30pm | Tickets £15, Concessions £12

Outrageous Fortune

Thursday 17th October 2.30pm & 7.30pm
Tickets £15, Concessions £12

Two women, both alike in dignity; both powerful, both strong willed. One builds up an empire, the other builds up walls.

Two different leading ladies. One scarlet thread running between them.

Inside the minds of the wife of a Thane and the wife of a Danish King, waters are muddied, and those that rise too high are destined to fall.

Based on Hamlet and Macbeth, this one act play picks up where Shakespeare left off. Presenting an alternative version of two of theatre’s most iconic tales, this play gives Lady Macbeth and Queen Gertrude their chance to tell how it wasn’t just their husbands that were unlucky enough to “suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune”.

Brace of Spades

Sunday 20th October 3pm
Tickets £15, Family Ticket (4 people, Max 2 adults) £54

Following a sold-out run at last year’s Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Tom Brace returns with a brand new magic show for the whole family! Featuring Tom’s unique blend of comedy and magic, the show promises to have a little something for everybody. Ages 8+

David Starkey: Six Wives - The Queens Of Henry VIII

Thursday 21st November 7.30pm
Tickets £17, Concessions £15

No one in history had a more eventful career in matrimony than Henry VIII. His marriages were daring and tumultuous, and made instant legends of six very different women. In this fascinating talk, David Starkey argues that the king was not a depraved philanderer, but someone seeking happiness and a son. Knowingly or not, he elevated a group of women to extraordinary heights and changed the way a nation was governed.

Six Wives examines the rituals of diplomacy, marriage, pregnancy, and religion that were part of daily life for women at the Tudor Court.
Steeleye Span’s 50th Anniversary Tour

Saturday 23rd November 7.30pm | Tickets £26.50

A vintage year for music and the end of a decade that changed the world, 1969 would also see the birth of a band that would go on to become one of the most enduring stories in the folk world and beyond. Fifty years on and Steeleye Span, led as ever by the iconic Maddy Prior, mark this incredible milestone with a night of favourites and songs from new album EST’D 1969.

Michael Portillo
Life: A Game of Two Halves
Thursday 16th January 7.30pm
Tickets £19.50, Concessions £17.50

It took Michael Portillo little more than 10 years to get a seat in the Commons and then rise in power and esteem to a point where he was a favoured leader of his party and possible future PM. Although his political career then came to a humiliating end, losing his seat in May 1997, Michael has since reinvented and endeared himself to many with his obvious respect for the solid workmanship found in the great railways of the world, the effect of the railways on the history of countries and the daily lives of their people. Listen to his story, told with a “parliamentary standup” wit, and then feel free to question him about it. Followed by a book signing.

Formed in 2012, The Dublin Legends, formerly The Dubliners, are the real deal! On the Saturday closest to St Patrick’s Day, make sure you’re at The Harlequin to celebrate with their songs, stories and the odd pint of Guinness too!

THE DUBLIN LEGENDS, Sean Cannon, Paul Watchorn, Gerry O’Connor & Shay Kavanagh, have over 100 years of performing experience between them and Sean was the lead singer with The Dubliners for over 30 of them! They will, of course, continue to play all the classic songs and ballads known the world over; Whiskey in The Jar, Dirty Old Town, The Wild Rover, Seven Drunken Nights, The Rare Auld Times, Molly Malone, The Irish Rover, Black Velvet Band & many more.
Clare Teal  Music
with special guests from Kansas Smitty’s House Band - A momentous collaboration of swing.

Saturday 21st March 7.30pm
Tickets £26, Concessions £24

Clare Teal & her trio meet head to head with The Kansas Smitty’s House Band for an entertaining and humorous evening packed with anecdotes and a rich jazz infused repertoire. Expect exhilarating swing and uplifting tunes as the stars celebrate 100 years of pop music featuring songs from the Great American and British song books to contemporary writers crafting the standards of today. It’s a pleasure to welcome Clare back to The Harlequin for what promises to be another brilliant night.

Milton Jones in
Milton: Impossible

Wednesday 25th March 7.30pm
Tickets £28.50

One man. One Mission. Is it possible? No, not really. Milton reveals the truth about being an international spy, before being given a disappointing new identity which forced him to appear on Mock the Week, Live at the Apollo. But this is also a love story with the twist, or even a really bad sprain. Just gloriously daft nonsense or is there a deeper meaning? Every man has his price. Sainsburys, where good food costs less.

Films at the Harlequin

Screening in digital, The Harlequin mixes the latest releases alongside independent and specialised films, as well as event cinema screenings of major theatre, ballet and arts events. Visit our website at www.harlequintheatre.co.uk to check out the latest cinema listings.

Family Screenings

Baby Club screenings take place in a relaxed environment, perfect for parents to enjoy with their little ones (up to 18 months). Saturday Morning Cinema Club (SMCC) plays great family films at the incredible price of £3.50 a ticket!

Accessible Cinema

The Harlequin aims to provide screenings accessible to all. We hold relaxed screenings, where the environment is adjusted for people with dementia, autism or sensory sensitivity. We also screen films with subtitles and have packs that allow users to enjoy audio description of their chosen film. Please check with the Box Office when booking for further information.

Fantastic Offers

Cheap Tuesdays occur each week - tickets are just £6.50 for any screening that takes place on a Tuesday. On Thursday screenings before 4pm, we hold our Silver Screen presentations. This allows those over 60 to enjoy a free slice of cake and cup of tea whilst watching the latest and greatest movies. Don’t forget to pick up a loyalty card from the Box Office: watch 9 films and get the 10th free!*

*LGBTQ Screenings

Screenings of the latest and classic LGBTQ cinema ranging from the mainstream to independent foreign language titles.

World Cinema

Screenings of the latest independent foreign language titles.

*Please note this offer does not include Event Cinema or SMCC screenings.

Information

Tickets
Reservations can be made on certain events. Reservations can be held for up to one week before they are released and put back on general sale.

Please ensure you check your tickets at the time of purchase. Tickets cannot be refunded unless an event is cancelled. On certain occasions, tickets can be exchanged. Exchanged tickets are charged an administrative fee of £1 per ticket, unless the value of the new tickets exceeds the value of the old ones.

Discounted or concessionary tickets may be available on events. Occasionally promoters may choose not to offer any discounts.

Access
The Harlequin is committed to making the venue accessible and enjoyable to all. Features of our accessible venue include: hearing loop system in the auditorium, portable induction loop at the Box Office, BSL pantomime performances, assistance dogs are welcome, braille signage, wheelchair spaces available in auditorium and cinema, subtitled, closed-caption and audio described films (on titles where this is available), dementia friendly screenings, autism friendly screenings and relaxed performances.

We also run an essential companion scheme, which allows a free ‘companion’ ticket for disabled patrons who need somebody present to assist them during their visit to The Harlequin.

Getting to The Harlequin
The Harlequin is in Redhill town centre, with direct access from the A23 and within 5 minutes walk of both train and bus stations.

For those arriving by car, a number of pay and display car parks are situated within 5 minutes walk of the venue.

Further information regarding all of the above can be found via our website at www.harlequintheatre.co.uk or by phoning the friendly box office team on 01737 276500.

Things you need to know
The management reserve the right to refuse admission and to alter/amend the programme, cast or arrangements due to unforeseen circumstances.

Latecomers may not be admitted until a suitable break in the performance.

Cameras and recording devices are not permitted in the auditorium or cinema. Anyone found using them may be asked to leave.

Electronic devices (e.g. phones or music players) should be turned off or to silent mode when in the auditorium or cinema. Any disturbances caused to an event by these devices are not the fault of the theatre.

Smoking or Vaping is not permitted anywhere in the building.

Children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult to any event.

Only food and drink purchased on site may be consumed on the premises.
