

Freddie Starr

The madcap comedian Freddie Starr is back on tour with another outrageous live show at The Harlequin Theatre & Cinema on Thursday 11 March at 7:45pm.

In the early 1960s, Freddie Starr was the lead singer of the Merseybeat pop group 'The Midnighters' but it wasn't till his appearance in the 1970 Royal Variety Performance that he shot to fame and his career really took off. He quickly became everyone's favourite Liverpudlian "hamster eating" impressionist, comedian, TV personality and sometimes even a singer.

Having celebrated more than 50 years in show business, Freddie Starr is no stranger to the stage and Britain's favorite funny man has even performed at The Harlequin Theatre & Cinema before and is pleased to be back with his own unique brand of outrageous and zany humor.

Freddie Starr has established himself as one of the true comic geniuses of all time and has cemented his place in the comedy 'Hall of Fame'. This is one evening of wild chaos and crazy capers that you can't afford to miss.

Freddie Starr is 'Reassuringly outrageous'; don't miss this legendary entertainer. Music, mayhem and trouser dropping madness guaranteed!

Tickets to Freddie Starr cost £20.00 (Concessions £17.00) and are now available to purchase now from The Harlequin Box Office on 01737 276 500 or online at www.harlequintheatre.co.uk.
